

26 Homes

12 x 1 apartment (2 person)

9 x 2 apartment (4 person)

5 x 3 apartment (5 person)

After ten years consultation and joined-up working with a range of partners, Dunbritton delivered these high quality homes in an area of real housing need.

Funding

The Scottish Government
(AHSP): £2.5 M

Argyll & Bute Council
(SHF): £1 M

Private Finance
(CAF Bank): £1.4 M

Design Features

Air Source Heat Pumps as an off-gas grid alternative to heating

Solar PV panels on roofs

Natural larch cladding for rural design in line with Loch Lomond & Trossachs National Park planning authority requirements

Community involvement

- Consultation with local people
- Local primary schools competition to name the development
- Community Council

Sustainability

Highly efficient closed panel timber kit system

Air Source Heat Pumps installed as a sustainable heating solution

Houses built to Greener Standard

Solar PV panels fitted to houses to help cut carbon emissions

Local Argyll Architect and Contractor procured